(A) DIRECTIVE TO SENTENCING COMMISSION.—Pursuant to its authority under section 994(p) of title 28, United States Code, and in accordance with this section, the United States Sentencing Commission forthwith shall review and amend its guidelines and its policy statements applicable to persons convicted of an offense under sections 201, 641, 666, and 1962 of title 18, United States Code, in order to reflect the intent of Congress that such penalties be increased in comparison to those currently provided by guidelines and policy statements.

(B) REQUIREMENTS.—In carrying out this subsection, the Commission shall—

(i) ensure that the sentencing guidelines and policy statements reflect Congress' intent that the guidelines and policy statements reflect the serious nature of the offenses described in subparagraph (A), the growing incidence of such offenses, and the need for an effective deterrent and appropriate punishment to prevent such offenses;

(ii) consider the extent to which the guidelines may or may not appropriately account for—

(I) the potential and actual harm to the public and the amount of any loss resulting from the offense;

(II) the level of sophistication and planning involved in the offense;

(III) whether the offense was committed for purposes of commercial advantage or private financial benefit;

(IV) whether the defendant acted with intent to cause either physical or property harm in committing the offense;

(V) the extent to which the offense represented an abuse of trust by the offender and was committed in a manner that undermined public confidence in the Federal, State, or local government; and

(VI) whether the violation was intended to or had the effect of creating a threat to public health or safety, injury to any person or even death;

(iii) assure reasonable consistency with other relevant directives and with other sentencing guidelines;

(iv) account for any additional aggravating or mitigating circumstances that might justify exceptions to the generally applicable sentencing ranges;

(v) make any necessary conforming changes to the sentencing guidelines; and

(vi) assure that the guidelines adequately meet the purposes of sentencing as set forth in section 3553(a)(2) of title 18, United States Code.
